Wear your Falcon Shirts on Friday's.

Math

Focus: I can write equivalent expressions by using the distributive property.

Example:

$$3(4a+b) = 12a + 3b$$

Language Arts

Focus: I know how a key individual, event, or idea is introduced, illustrated, and elaborated.

Example: I can provide two main ideas and supporting details for the text.

Science

Focus: I can describe the interactions between air masses that cause changes in weather conditions.

Example: Collect and analyze weather data to provide evidence for how air masses flow from regions of high pressure to low pressure causing a change in weather. Examples of data collection could include field observations, laboratory experiments, weather maps, or diagrams.

Social Studies

Focus: I can explain how modern governments can trace some of their attributes to the systems of power, authority, and governance established in ancient civilizations.

Example: I can trace the attributes of the United States government to those of ancient Greek democracy.

Essential Question: How can understanding the political systems of ancient times apply to modern day?
